

NATIONAL WWII MUSEUM EXPANSION | NEW ORLEANS, LA

NEW CONSTRUCTION | VOORSANGER MATHES, L.L.C. VENTURE

COMPLETED: 2009

PROGRAM: 300,000 SF

BUDGET: $39 MILLION

CLIENT: NATIONAL WWII MUSEUM

MBA TEAM:

EDWARD C. MATHES, ARCHITECT, AIA

PETE PRIOLA, ARCHITECT, AIA

NICHOLE CHAUVIN, ARCHITECT, AIA

TONY ALFORTISH, ARCHITECT, AIA

■ Mathes Brierre Architects was selected by Voorsanger Architects to be their partner on this project, which consists of Master Planning design and preparation of Construction Documents for the first two phases of an $86,000,000 expansion of the National World War II Museum. The first two phases consist of a multi-sensory Theater, a USO experience, a restaurant and bar, the restoration of three historic buildings along Magazine Street into administrative space, and the Campaigns Pavilion, the first of the major exhibit pavilions.

